PRESENTATION TO COUNCILMAN CHARLES GAN-

PRESENTATION TO COUNCILMAN CHARLES GANnon, by his German constituents of the Second district of the First ward.—The presentation took place at Mr. Gannon's house, and as the matter was wholly unexpected by him, it gave the affair additional attraction.
The testimonial consisted of a massive and elegant gold watch and chain, of superb workmanship, and very chaste design. The committee appointed to deliver the testimonial consisted of Captain Meyerholtz, Doctor Van Leir, Henry Von Glahn, Esq., and Peter Schulty, Esq.
After a neat and appropriate speech by Captain Meyerholtz, presenting the bijou to Councilman Gannon, he replied in terms betitting the occasion, expressing that it had ever been his aim to merit the good esteem of his fellow citizens, and after thanking them very kindly, the guests partock of a sumptuous repast. It was one of the brilliant episodes in Mr. Gannon's life.
